Not illustrated. 1880 Excerpt: ...difficult if not impossible to go with an ordinary surf boar to a vessel in distress. It is claimed that a man equipped in one of these dresses can leave a stranded vessel with a line and pass through any surf to a sand beach. A boat can be pulled by a person clad in this dress with no more inconvenience than if in heavy winter clothing, and the dress can be put on in from two to four minutes, so that a man can go where and as he pleases in it in water, no matter how rough or cold, stay as long as he wish, and come out dry, warm, and comfortable. These dresses have been in use in the United States Life-Saving Service eight years, and the cost of repairs on those same dresses has been but 9 per cent of their original cost after eight years regular service. 39475.
