

The War Between the Cities: Book I

A young peasant boy is suddenly given great honor, after saving the King of the planets son. Years later the boy uncovers the Kings plot to destroy an entire race of people. A plot begins forming in his head, and as he searches for allies, he finds himself guilty of treason, sheltering of a criminal, and posing of a King. Yet he finds himself in foreign lands with the fate of the world in his hands as world war breaks out. After being forced to stage his own death, he takes on a new guise as the dreaded demon warrior who has supernatural powers. Filled with battles in cities, on seas, and in the wilderness. Romance, betrayal, and daring escapes, and yet after all is said and done he sees a possibility of a brighter future unveiling, until a dark shadow begins to descend upon the land and death at hand, he must prevail in order for life to be sustained
